Autumn McLeod-Whitstone

autumnmcleodwhitstone@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/autumn-mw

Autumn McLeod-Whitstone (she/they) is a Scottish-Cree artist residing in her hometown of amiskwacîwâskahikan ᐊᒥᐢᑲᒪᐧᑕᐊᐧᐢᑲᐦᐃᑲᐣ (Edmonton, Alberta). Using a recurring motif of rabbits as a proxy for her sense of self, their work personifies the rabbit in various different physical forms to approach themes of mental health, trauma, feminism, and nostalgia.

EDUCATION

2028 Studio Arts - Bachelor of Fine Arts, MacEwan University.

SELECTED GROUP EXHIBITIONS

2026 The Mind's Eye: Below The Surface

2025 I PAID $20 000 JUST TO DO THIS

2024 Art Is…Soul: Where Memories Bring the Past to Life
curated by Moments by Morrel and Christina Hamer Female Gazes
curated by Kim Shanks
Reclaiming Power: The Art of Radical Love and Self Expression

WORK EXPERIENCE

2024-Current Server/Hostess
O'Byrne's Ice District, Edmonton, Alberta.

2022-2023 Inventory Control
Motion Canada, Edmonton, Alberta.